Introductory notes

Governors

- I. The Central Bank of Brazil was established by Law 4,595 of December 31, 1964; the initial composition of the Board of Governors, of 4 members, was ruled by article 14.
- II. From 1965 to 1974, Governors were chosen among appointed members of the CMN (article 14 of Law 4,595).
- III. Pursuant to Law 6,045 of May 15, 1974, Governors begin to be appointed by the President of the Republic, and no longer are chosen among the appointed members of the CMN.

Deputy Governors – from 1965 to 1969

- I. From 1965 to 1969, Deputy Governors of the Central Bank were chosen among the appointed members of the CMN; Areas were positioned under the personal jurisdiction of Deputy Governors, without an organizational body specifically designated.
- II. Law 5,362 of November 30, 1967, modified the number of members of the Board of Governors to 5. Central Bank begins to have 4 Deputy Governors with the inauguration of Mr. Paulo Hortêncio Pereira Lira.

Deputy Governors – as from 1969

- I. Directorates begin to be identified by Area of activity only as from 5/Dec/1969 (Notice DEPAD 142).
- II. Law 6,045 of May 15, 1974, modifies the composition of the Board of Governors to 6 members (1 Governor and 5 Deputy Governors) and Central Bank Dep. Governors begin to be appointed by the President of the Republic. Dep. Governors no longer are members of the National Monetary Council, but participate in CMN meetings without the right to vote.
- III. On 18/Feb/1975, Vote ⁽¹⁾ CMN 29/75 was approved and Ordinance ⁽²⁾ 63 came into effect establishing: technical and administrative bodies to the Central Bank; special units (Governor's and Deputy Governors' Offices), and directorates which begin to have specific names – Administration Directorate, Banking Directorate, External Directorate, Rural and Industrial Credit Directorate, Securities Market Directorate.
- IV. Decree-Law 1,795 of July 8, 1980 modifies the composition of the Board of Governors to 7 members (1 Governor and 6 Dep. Governors); due to this the Public Debt Directorate (DIDIP) is established.
- V. Decree 88,008 of December 29, 1982 cuts down one position of Deputy Governor, reducing to 6 members the composition of the Board of Governors (1 Governor and 5 Dep. Governors); the DIDIP is discontinued.
- VI. Decree 91,148 of March 15, 1985 modifies the composition of the Board of Governors to 8 members (1 Governor and 7 Deputy Governors); two directorates are established: the Supervision Directorate and the Public Debt and Open Market Directorate.
- VII. Decree 91,961 of November 19, 1985 modifies the composition of the Board of Governors to 9 members (1 Governor and 8 Deputy Governors); the External Debt Affairs Directorate is established.

On 16/Mar/1990, Vote BCB 258/90 was approved and came into effect the Ordinance 209, which modified the organizational structure and implemented a new structure for the Central Bank's directorates. The decisions were complemented by Vote BCB 610-C/1990 and by Ordinance 212.

- VIII. On 24/Jan/1992, Vote BCB 57/92 was approved, introducing the Board of Governors as model of governance, with each unit's duties and competences grouped by matter; Governor's and Dep. Governors' staff offices were discontinued, and were abolished: the practice of naming a Deputy Governor by his field of operation ("Deputy Governor for ...") and respective acronyms.
- IX. The title of Board of Governors' members begun to correlate the groupings defined in bylaw (Ordinance 267 of March 4, 1996) as follows: "Deputy Governor in charge for the matters of..." without official acronyms; however, this form of addressing board members was not effective, either internal or externally, and the use of acronyms remained informally (Communiqué BCB 427/99).
- X. On 8/Dec/1999, pursuant to Service Order 3,502, the form of addressing board members was modified, reintroducing the official use of the expression "Deputy Governor for ..." and respective acronyms by Area of activity.
- XI. On 14/Dec/2005, after the disclosure of the new bylaw by Ordinance 29,971, all incumbent Deputy Governors had their competences established and confirmed by Ordinance 32,972
